

Janesville approves contract (Chicago Tribune)

Contributed by Webmaster
Thursday, 04 October 2007
Last Updated Thursday, 04 October 2007

Some UAW workers unhappy, resigned United Auto Workers members at General Motors Corp.'s Janesville, Wis., assembly plant voted Wednesday in favor of a landmark four-year contract that, based on early results, appears headed for ratification by GM's 73,000 UAW members.

Senate Hopes To Trim A Billion From State Budget (CBS4 Miami)

With the bang of a gavel and an announcement that "We have a quorum Mr. President," Florida senators kicked off a special session in Tallahassee focused on cutting nearly $1 billion from the state's budget.

No-fault fix likely to pass (Miami Herald)

In a surprise move, one of the biggest opponents to re-instating no-fault automobile insurance in Florida dropped his opposition Thursday in a Senate committee, signaling that the special interest-laden fight is over and that the bill will likely pass the Legislature swiftly.

Chiropractic Services In Arizona